Evil Counselors

a fictional story by Sophie Ripes

“Jacob, I want this!” “Jacob, I’m homesick.” “Jacob, I’m hungry!” Jacob’s campers kept asking him about things like this and he got frustrated. He told them, “I’m done! Darn it Jeff stop complaining! You too Bob! You are all deflated hamburgers!” All the A2 Matadors started crying. “Stop being babies!” Jacob said. One of the kids, Hakoreenana, reported him to Jacob’s girlfriend Meeka John, who had 8 ears and 4 noses Jacob was also reported to Michael Wax, and was put into Beber jail for the night. Jacob had to sleep outside with nothing, not even a bathroom. Jacob didn’t sleep that night. In the morning, he had 4 ticks on his legs, 5 on his arms, an ear infection, dandruff and lice. He was in the health center and missed everything up to rest hour. The next morning, he put the plan he thought of last night into action. “Hey Ari, want to be evil?” “Heck no!” “Hey Johnny, want to be evil?” “Never!” “Hey Alanna, want to be evil?” “What the guac?” This made Jacob think of chips and gave him an idea. He told Meeka John. She loved his idea. He called it Mr. Macaroni. You’re probably wondering what it is. It is an evil bionic chip that turns people evil. He hacked into Johnny, he hacked into Alanna, he hacked into every counselor at camp. Meeka John is the only counselor without a chip. Kids were forced to swim the lake and do pushups. Meeka John decided to reveal her true self. She takes off her fake noses and ears and reveals how beautiful she really is. She and her squad of CITs turn Jacob into 300 mosquitos, who get slapped and squished all around camp.

Our Group Story

by the Beber Buzz team

We created a story as a whole group, one word at a time! Here it is, with some words added for grammar and context, and an ending created as a group:

There once was Bob that married an Asian hippo. Bob ate octopus and a very dumb fish. The hippo divorced Bob because Johnny, the hippo's ex-husband loves her nostrils. Dreadfully, Bob dumped all of the kangaroos with the super harmonicas, together forever. Bob thought if he mixed the kangaroos and the super harmonicas, it would make a powerful magic force that would make the hippo love him. However, Bob didn't know the super harmonicas were evil. The super harmonicas turned the kangaroos into evil jelly giraffes! With the jelly giraffes closing in, the super harmonicas eat Johnny. However, the octopus and dumb fish that Bob ate gave him super burp powers. He, along with the Asian hippo's help, get rid of all the jelly giraffes and harmonicas. Just when they thought they had gotten rid of them all, the last one eats Bob! The hippo goes to free Bob. The giraffe, however, pleads for its life, and the hippo agrees. He spits out Bob and becomes their friend. Bob and the hippo decide to get remarried, with the giraffe officiating. The giraffe says "I now pronounce you husband and wife!". They happily marry, and as they walk away the giraffe mutters under his breath "for now..."

The Future of Earth

by Isaac Lewis

One day a star hit the Earth. All of the humans figured out that the star was going to hit Earth so they blasted into space. Two years later, the people came back to Earth and saw that the Earth was burned. So they rebuilt the planet. Twenty years later, aliens attacked the Earth. The aliens took over the world. Five years later, other aliens attacked and the new aliens took over the world. Two years later, a meteorite hit the Earth. All the aliens died except for one, and that one took over the whole universe.

Stink-a-Lot

by Zoe Vishnitsky

Once there was a baby trash can.

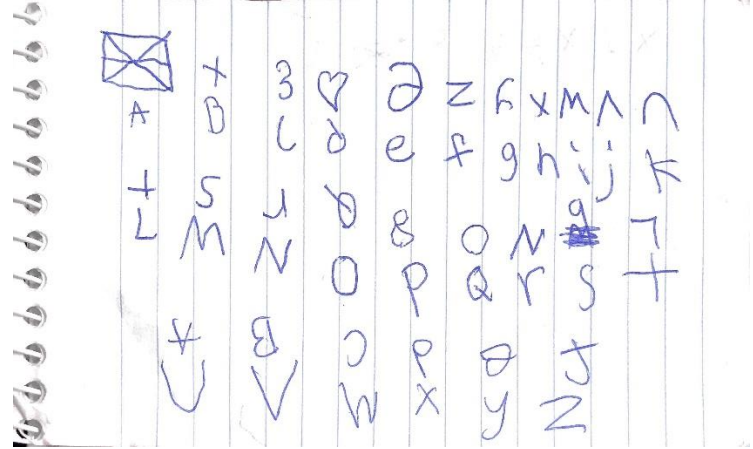

Everyone called him stinky and gross and he was in a science class and one day a guy named accidentally poured some hyperactive glob gloop on him. He came alive then he ran away and he thought about how sad he was with his life was. He started to think of becoming evil and the he did.

He went and hurt everyone in the school and then he went to jail and he got the name stink-a lot. He was in jail one day when he realized he had an invisible wreck in ball he broke out of jail. He grew horns and fangs, and got a super cool cape. and then he took over the world. Or so he thought... He hadn't taken over Antarctica and none other than Joe was there. He heard the new and created a dreadful vile of killer potion. He poured it on Stink-a-lot and Stink-a-lot was no more.
